Air Offensive in Ruhr Hits New Peak

STEEL CENTER OF MUELHEIM IS ATTACKED

Royal Air Force Lists 35 Bombers As Missing In Giant Raid Over Industrial Germany

BLASTS ITALIAN CITIES

By ROGER GREENE
Associated Press War Editor

Germany's war foundries in the Ruhr underwent a violent new storm of bombs before dawn today as hundreds of RAF block-buster raiders attacked the steel center of Muelheim (pop. 136,000) and returned by the light of great fires still burning from an assault on nearby Krefeld 24 hours earlier.

Waves of U. S. Flying Fortresses kept up the big-scale offensive by daylight, raiding unspecified targets across the channel.

The British air ministry said the night attack on Muelheim was "well concentrated" and returning fliers declared they saw flames still shooting up from both Krefeld and Huls. Huls was hit by American Fortresses yesterday.

DNB, the German news agency, said the British also hit Oberhausen in the Ruhr, inflicting heavy damage, and bitterly characterized the attacks as "terror raids."

An RAF communique listed 35 bombers as missing—nine less than in Monday night's raid by more than 700 planes—for a two-day toll of 79 aircraft.

The ancient city of Muelheim, dating back to 1508, is the site of important steel mills, foundries and engine works. It lies seven miles west of Essen, home of the giant Krupp munitions works.

In the Mediterranean, the paralyzing three-way attack on Italy from Allied bases in North Africa, the Middle East and Malta appeared to have broken down.

Free French Still Divided

Algiers, June 23.—(P)—One of the hottest issues in French North Africa—army recruiting—came to the fore today as the French Forces of Liberation remained divided in allegiance between two commanders in chief, Generals Charles De Gaulle and Henri Giraud.

It was apparent that the duel for power between the two leaders and their factions would be quickly resumed following a compromise settlement yesterday continuing the status quo in military control.

Giraudists indicated they were "fasting" by recruiting on a territorial basis, thereby excluding the Fighting French from drawing manpower from North Africa.

De Gaulleists declared that not only were they threatened with a "freeze out" in North Africa where they asserted many civilians wanted to join the Fighting French but also that those escaping from France also were being channeled into the North African army.

Capital Observer Declares President Is Physically Fit

Washington, June 23.—(P)—Whether or not President Roosevelt's name is on the presidential ballot again in 1944, the chances are his health won't be the deciding factor.

That was the word today from D. C. Speaker, unofficial but well-informed capital observer who said that close associates of the president generally conceded that the 51-year-old chief executive could stand the strain of another campaign and term.

"You understand, of course," laughed D. C. mythical District of Columbia spokesman who represents authentic but unquotable sources, "that I'm not saying whether the president should or shouldn't run again or whether he will or won't win a fourth-term nomination—I know when to keep my big mouth shut."

"However," he added, "a lot of people have asked whether Mr. Roosevelt's health would permit him to make another presidential race, and right now it looks like it would."

Speaker stressed that the president has suffered no serious illnesses in the past year or so.

The president still is capable of throwing the day's troubles off his shoulders when the day is over, Speaker said, adding that this capacity kept him going long after younger and more physically-fit men were worn out.

Italy Picked As Probable Landing Point

Little Indication That Germany Plans To Give Partner Much Aid

MUSSOLINI PREPARING

London, June 23.—(P)—The Germans, still playing an invasion guessing game, were represented by the Berlin radio today as picking Italy as the most likely Allied landing spot but there were indications they expected their junior partner to meet the initial attack with little aid from the Nazi war machine.

A Berlin broadcast recorded by the Ministry of Information promised help "in case of a decisive battle on Italian soil" implying that until then Mussolini's legions should shoulder the greater part of the weight.

There were some reports on the other hand that the Nazis already were rushing troops and planes to the Calabrian coastline, the section of the Italian mainland nearest to the present Allied bases, but there was no confirmation.

The Berlin broadcast hinted that Mussolini has called home his troops that have been policing occupied territory in Europe.

"During the war only part of the Italian army have been reserved for the defense of Italy," the report said, "but now all armed Italian forces are defending their mother country."

Erich Schneider, editor-in-chief of Transocean News Agency, said flatly in a Berlin broadcast heard yesterday by The Associated Press that "Italy is expecting invasion."

COAL PRODUCTION IN ENGLAND DECLINING

London, June 23.—(P)—An alarming and steady decline in British coal production has been halted for the first time since the start of the war, Fuel Minister Major Gwilym Lloyd George told commons today.

In a debate on the mining situation he said that miners had increased their number of shifts and the average amount of coal mined per man-shift.

"We have not only met consumption demands but have added substantially to the coal tonnage in stock," he said.

ELK HILL OIL DEAL INQUIRY BROADENING

Suspicious Lawmakers of Both House and Senate Demand Information On Transaction

WILL QUESTION KNOX

Washington, June 23.—(P)—Suspicious lawmakers of both house and senate demanded more information today on a navy oil deal, described by a justice department attorney as more far-reaching than the notorious Teapot Dome leases of the 20's, and a movement also started for a first-hand inquiry in the oil field involved.

The house public lands committee decided to hear more testimony Friday. Navy Secretary Knox asked an opportunity to give his version of the now-abrogated contract with Standard Oil Company of California for development of the Elk Hills, Calif., reserve.

Knox cancelled the contract after the Justice department ruled it was illegal, but contended in public statements that it was a good one for all concerned, including the public.

Assistant Attorney General Norman M. Littell drew the comparison in testimony before the committee yesterday. Chairman Peterson (D-Fla.) indicated Littell would be quizzed further.

At the same time, Peterson appointed a group to appear before the house rules committee seeking authority to make a trip to the Elk Hills region.

Meanwhile, the senate public lands committee took up today a resolution by Senator Nye (R-ND) for a separate inquiry into the contract. Nye said he wanted to know if there had been "political maneuvering" behind the deal. He did not amplify his remark.

Littell reviewed the Teapot Dome cases to background his testimony, but emphasized he was not questioning the navy's good faith. (Congress conducted a five-year inquiry into the Teapot Dome and Elk Hills leases executed by Albert B. Fall, secretary of the interior in the Harding administration. Fall was convicted of accepting a $100,000 bribe in the Elk Hills instances.)

Littell said he believed the navy officials had negotiated the present Elk Hills transaction in "good faith."

Philadelphia Registrants Are Checked

Philadelphia, June 23.—(P)—A check of the draft classification of every Philadelphia registrant was under way today—designed, according to Lieut. Col. George H. Hafer, acting director of Pennsylvania Selective Service, "to determine if any manpower is available which will postpone the drafting of fathers."

Selective Service officials said the check, among the first in the United States, would be extended throughout Pennsylvania if it proved useful here.

The survey, which began yesterday, is being conducted by a staff of 10—six army officers and four civilian field advisers—who are to make personal visits to each of the city's 85 local boards.

At the first board visited, the investigators reportedly found

Rickenbacker Is In Moscow

Moscow, June 23.—(P)—Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker has been in Moscow since Sunday on a mission as the representative of Secretary of War Henry H. Stimson, it was disclosed today.

Rickenbacker arrived at 1 p. m. Sunday in a four-engined Liberator.

The news of Rickenbacker's presence in Moscow was made public to those present yesterday at a Kremlin ceremony where United States Ambassador William H. Standley presented 60 American military awards to Russian soldiers and sailors.

His visit to Russia is a continuation of his tour of world battlefronts. It was assumed that he will see various high-ranking military people and officials, possibly Premier Joseph Stalin himself.

Few Applying For Licenses To Drive Cars

Once-Flourishing Army Of New Operators In State Missing

BAN GIVEN AS CAUSE

BY RALPH E. WALLIS

Harrisburg, June 23.—(P)—The once-flourishing army of would-be automobile drivers in Pennsylvania has been cut to a mere handful by gasoline restrictions and the new pleasure driving ban.

Only 16,334 persons applied last month for operator learner permits—a drop of 62.5 per cent from the May, 1941, total—and David W. Harris, secretary of revenue, today predicted further decreases in the fuel-restricted future.

He added, in an interview, that anticipated reductions in learner permits would also bring sharper cuts in operator licenses, which he said have been reduced almost seven per cent in the past year.

Guy Swope, OPA regional director in the 10-county central Pennsylvania district, commented that "no special allotment" of gasoline can be provided for those who have learner permits and are relying on using an automobile to get the knack of driving.

"A person with a learner's permit may use the basic 'A' ration of gasoline but such driving should be confined to the immediate vicinity of his home," he declared.

The "A" allotment of gasoline and the "backyard" training course, said Harris, will not give young men much incentive to pick up the knowledge necessary to pass state tests for a license.

Confusion In Drill Studied

Harrisburg, June 23.—(P)—Hitches in Pennsylvania's air raid warning system, based in the state's first dawn blackout drill, were blamed today on local officials' failure "to stay on the ball."

By Ralph C. Hutchinson, State Defense Council director.

Noting confusion in some areas after the test began at 4:30 a. m. yesterday, Dr. Hutchinson said "We'll have to take steps to perk them up." He added that no changes in the system were contemplated so far as a result of kinks in the surprise test.

"Mr. Hitler will not take the time to stage a raid when they expect it," Hutchinson declared. "Defense leaders will have to be ready at any time."

The rehearsal was ordered by the Army's Third Service Command. It went off smoothly in many districts but some communities slept through it. Reports to state headquarters indicated some counties mistook the blackout message for test calls and in other sections, insufficient personnel was on hand.

NEW TRIAL REFUSED

Wilmington, Del. June 22.—(P)—Federal Judge Paul Leahy denied today a new trial for Hugh B. Monjar, president of the Mantle Club, and 11 associates on mail frauds and securities act charges and ordered them to appear in court Friday for sentencing.

Thirty-Five Motorists To Be Cited By OPA Investigators As Result of Tuesday Visit

Investigators of the Erie office of the OPA spent last night in this city and, with one of the men of the State Police, stopped many drivers east of the city. In all, thirty-five will be cited for violations before the local board. Many more than that number were questioned, but all seemingly had good reasons for driving with the exception of the parties to be cited.

Inquiry this morning at the Erie office of the OPA brought out the information that in addition to the 35 cited here 15 were picked up at Meadville.

Names of all cited will be sent to the local rationing board and they will set a time and date for the appearance of the drivers and will pass upon the evidence presented and listen to the defense made. Then punishment will be doled out.

It was learned from Erie this morning that the names of the persons cited some days ago have been forwarded to the local board and that they will receive notice to appear soon. This matter of appearance is strictly up to the local board.

It was also learned from conversation with the Erie official that the observance of the driving ban in most of this section is quite good. There had to be numbers cited and punished in Erie before the drivers realized that the gasoline shortage really existed. Erie gas stations are having a hard time getting sufficient gas to care for the demands and last Sunday 8000 persons rode bicycles to Pennsylvania Park.

It was stated that no gasoline from this section is going into Ohio and that Ohio motorists are being discouraged as far as possible from coming into Pennsylvania and using up the gasoline there in this area.

CHANGE AT SHENANGO

Greenville, June 23.—(P)—Col. George M. Couper has been named training section commander, and Col. James P. Huiley has assumed the duties of supply and service division director at the army's Shenango personnel replacement depot, the public relations office announced.

Anti-Subsidy Plan Facing Floor Battle

Washington, June 23.—(P)—Legislation limiting to $500,000,000 a year government payments to force down food prices was thrown into the congressional battle over subsidies today.

The senate banking committee, after a two-hour session behind closed doors, approved by a voice vote a revised version of an amendment by Senator Taft (R-Ohio) which would have set a $250,000,000 ceiling on subsidy payments to offset decreases in retail food prices.

Regarded as the most liberal of the anti-subsidy proposals, the measure was in for an admittedly stiff floor battle as opponents of all such payments sought support for a variety of proposals that ranged from required congressional sanction for all subsidies to a prohibition against use of any government funds for price rollbacks.

Another phase of the subsidy (Turn to Page Seven)

RWLB RULES ON PAY FOR VACATION WORK

Philadelphia, June 23.—(P)—An employee who works instead of taking a vacation may be paid for the work without approval of the Regional War Labor Board, Bert W. Levy, RWLB attorney, ruled today.

Levy said such pay "is not a pay increase since it will not mean an increase in the hourly rate." He said the interpretation applies only when vacations are provided for "in an existing agreement or well-established practice."

The attorney also ruled that stores and offices may observe regular "summer closing hours" so long as they do not allow employees to work fewer hours than in previous years for the same pay.

ROOSEVELTS HOSTS TO NETHERLANDS QUEEN

Washington, June 23.—(P)—The White House announced today that President and Mrs. Roosevelt spent last Sunday at their home at Hyde Park, N. Y., with Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands as their guest.

White House officials said they had no reason for believing the visit of Wilhelmina was anything more than social.

The queen has been in Ottawa for some time. After her visit with the Roosevelts she returned to Canada.

Prolonged Fight Is Foreseen in Lewis Back-To-Pit Order

Statement Of Union President Carries Broad Indication Miners May Resort To Courts To Obtain Travel Time Pay

OPERATORS CLAIM VIOLATION OF WLB VERDICT

By JOSEPH A. LOFTUS

Washington, June 23.—(P)—A back-to-work movement in Pennsylvania and West Virginia captive mines signaled the end today of the nation's third general wartime coal strike, with indications pointing to virtually full-scale production tomorrow.

Responding to instructions from UMW President John L. Lewis and his policy committee, the men who dig coal for the big steel companies led off the return to work—a return ordered only until October 31 and conditional upon continued government operation of the mines.

Those conditions led operators and others to protest that the main issue—a new contract embracing portal-to-portal pay—was merely postponed, not settled.

Except for the captive mines, few pits returned immediately to production as local unions awaited receipt of the formal order to go back to work. Partial crews showed up at some shafts, but operations were far from normal.

Despite some expressions from union leaders of dissatisfaction with the settlement, an early check indicated no move to disregard the policy committee's order.

Resumed production for the steel plants—although on a reduced scale—removed the immediate threat to war production and led steel company officials to cancel plans for further curtailment of operations.

In addition to specifying that the government must not restore direction of the mines to their owners, the union's back-to-work order carried a broad indication that the miners would resort to the courts to obtain the underground travel pay denied them by the WLB.

A statement issued in behalf of the Appalachian operators declared the action of the UMW policy committee "is in direct violation of the War Labor Board's directive of June 18."

The immediate reaction of WLB Chairman William H. Davis to the miners' decision was expressed in these words:

"I take Mr. Lewis' statement to mean that the production of coal will be resumed under the conditions ordered by the War Labor Board, and I think that's all the country is interested in."

Whether this victory claim was shared by a majority of the board was uncertain. Technically Lewis was still in defiance of the board, and he refused to sign the contract as directed, calling it "an infamous yellow-dog contract," even though it appeared he was accepting the wage terms of that contract.

Whether this means the miners, contrary to traditional policy, agreed to work without a contract is a matter of interpretation.

It was possible the WLB might yet protest to the president against Lewis' condition that the government must retain direction of the mines.

The back to work order came only a few hours after the board had referred the strike to the White House with a request that Mr. Roosevelt use "all the power of government" to force Lewis into a working contract in line with WLB directions.

A well-placed source said nationalization of the mines, as such, was not contemplated, and the operators would be continued as managers for the government, at these words:

Increasing Numbers Expected To Return To Pits During Day

New York, June 23.—(P)—John Boylan, secretary of the joint anthracite coal industry wage negotiating committee, said today that the language of a tentative agreement between negotiators was now under study and that it embodied all phases of the negotiations except wages.

Representatives of the United Mine Workers and Pennsylvania hard coal operators were scheduled to be the thirteenth week of their negotiations at a meeting this afternoon. A source close to both sides said that the agreement now shaping up "would be a reasonable document."

Pittsburgh, June 23.—(P)—Ending their third work stoppage in seven weeks, members of the United Mine Workers began returning to steel company-owned coal pits in Pennsylvania and West Virginia today as union officials relayed word to the men of the truce announced by their policy committee at Washington.

The back-to-work trek was a mere trickle on the morning shifts, but an increasing number was expected to report on afternoon and night shifts. Operators (Turn to Page Seven)

Workers In Hard Coal Fields Await Orders

Wilkes-Barre, June 23.—(P)—The United Mine Workers' Tri-District (anthracite) Scale Committee ordered all miners in the anthracite region to resume work immediately under a truce announced in Washington by John L. Lewis and the UMW policy committee.

Mines in the anthracite fields failed to reopen today, miners saying they were waiting for specific union instructions. UMW leaders believed production would be resumed tomorrow.

The Tri-District committee sent telegrams to all local unions in Districts 1, 7 and 9, saying the policy committee's back-to-work action "is hereby confirmed and approved."

A survey of major workings throughout the hard coal field showed that not a wheel was turning. Only in the Wilkes-Barre area did any workers show up at the mines this morning, and their number was wholly inadequate for a resumption of operations.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, tuberculosis is already rising in certain areas in the United States, due to wartime conditions, and

WHEREAS, a nationwide rise in the disease would seriously sabotage a greatly increased number of individual lives, as well as our war production, for tuberculosis is the first cause of death among persons between 15 and 45 years of age, and

WHEREAS, our Nation uses the most powerful protection against the spread of tuberculosis in the armed forces—the chest X-ray examinations—and

WHEREAS, the Warren County Tuberculosis Society has set aside the month of June for an intensive Early Diagnosis Campaign, the slogan of which is, "Follow the Example of the Armed Forces—Get a Chest X-ray," and

WHEREAS, every resident in Warren has a personal and community responsibility in preventing the catastrophes which tuberculosis causes,

THEREFORE, I, Burgess of Warren, do hereby call on the people of this city to cooperate with the Warren County Tuberculosis Society during this campaign, as well as throughout the year, to the end that the unholy alliance between war and tuberculosis is not permitted to occur in our midst.

Pre-Induction Boy Scouts Serve Nation as Dispatch Bearers Resuscitator Shows Worth On Local Boy

Acceptances received to date at the YMCA office indicate a fine attendance for this month's Pre-Induction meeting to be held in the "Y" club rooms Thursday evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

The one talk of the evening will be given by Dr. Arnold Kiffer, who will speak of the adjustments in attitude and living men face as they enter the Service, giving hints and helps as to what to do and not to do as one goes through the examinations at Erie and the earlier training period in camp. There will also be a leisurely conducted question-and-answer period, which has proved to be a most practical and helpful feature of this monthly gathering of selectees.

A very satisfying luncheon will be provided by the Elks, with D. W. Lewis in charge. Monty McClure and Ex-Chaplain H. A. Rindard are expected, along with others, to help in providing the selectees with information they desire about the experiences ahead of them. All selectees of the month, who expect to go to Erie later in the month for examinations, are eligible to attend this meeting and will find it to their distinct advantage to do so. Those who have not made reservations can still do so by telephoning the YMCA office.

Everybody reads the Times-Mirror

Several hundred thousand Boy Scouts have already qualified as Dispatch Bearers for the Office of War Information. They are proudly carrying these identification cards as they distribute vital information prepared by the United States Government. They will continue this assignment for the duration.

Boy Scouts are being selected from the troops of Warren to serve as Official Dispatch Bearers for the Office of War Information of the United States Government, it was learned today from

B. W. Knapp, chairman of the Camping and Activities Committee. The first assignment has come through for the Scouts and it involved the distribution of deacalomania which has been distributed to the stores in the business district indicating the manager's desire to cooperate in the campaign by displaying the posters in his store window.

The original ground work for the Scouts was made by a Committee from the Chamber of Commerce under the leadership of Mr. Ben Kinnear. The other men of his committee are as follows: Stewart Beckley, H. B. Pettit, W. H. Wright, P. M. Printz, E. L. Stein, Wm. Cannon, F. A. Wood and E. E. Kirschner. Members of the Committee have made individual contacts with the merchants in town to secure their interest and help to prepare for the work of the Boy Scouts.

As a part of the Dispatch Bearer program the Scouts who perform this service will carry an identification card which bears instructions from Elmer Davis, Director of War Information, Dr. Elbert K. Fretwell, Chief Scout Executive and a message from President Franklin D. Roosevelt. It will also carry the signature of the local Scout Executive and the Scoutmaster.

The present program being undertaken by the boys will involve a distribution of posters throughout the business district every other Saturday in accordance with a schedule worked out by the Office of War Information in Washington, D. C.

The deacalomania and the first poster entitled "United We Are Strong" were distributed Friday and Saturday by Scouts of Troop No. 4 and Troop No. 9. Scouts who served are as follows: Jay White, Leland Daye, Thomas Hampson, Joseph Waller, Richard Schuler, Alan Schuler, Henry Bick, Benny Williams, Julian Gordon and Jack Updegraff.

Thomas, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Saraceno, Crescent street and Madison avenue had a narrow escape from death last evening while swimming in the pool at the Warr-Penn. near Rogers Mills. The lad in company with others was enjoying the water when he evidently became tired and sank. Companions quickly noted his trouble and brought him out. Robert Jackson, a boy companion, at once applied artificial respiration and the lad recovered to some extent.

He was placed in an automobile and brought to his home where upon arrival he again collapsed. An alarm was sent to the Central fire station and firemen responded with the resuscitator. Police also were called and they picked up a physician and took him to the home. The resuscitator brought what water was left in the boy out and restored his normal breathing in a remarkably short time. The physician then took charge.

The lad today is resting comfortably and is evidently out of all danger.

Instructions For Obtaining Canning Sugar Announced

On May 24, 1943, Stamps No. 15 and No. 16 of War Ration Book No. 1 became valid until October 31, 1943, each for five pounds of sugar. These stamps are to be handled by the trade in the same manner as other sugar stamps and must be used for canning at the allowed rate of one pound sugar per four quarts of finished fruit.

Relatively few families will require more than the ten pounds of sugar per person automatically allotted, as this provides forty quarts of canned fruit, or two hundred quarts for a family of five. However, if more sugar is needed for home canning, application must be made to the local board in Warren, at the Court House, starting June 28 through July, or at the following distribution offices:

Clare L. Gordon, Columbus.
Ivan E. Hawkins, Bear Lake.
Elsa W. Juse, Sheffield.
Wallace R. Lake, Youngsville.
John A. VanOrsdale, Russell.
James Pascerella, Corydon.
Eritz A. Schoonover, Sugar Grove.

Lynn W. Shipman, Kinzua.
W. C. Tompsett, Tidoute.
G. W. Whitcome, Grand Valley.
Donaldson Bros., Spring Creek.
The maximum allowance which can be granted, not including amount purchased on Stamps No. 15 and No. 16, is fifteen pounds of sugar per person, which amount includes five pounds per person for making jams and jellies.

The application must be made in writing, may be mailed or presented in person, must be accompanied by War Ration Book No. 1.

Girls Open Camp Edey Next Sunday

Staff members are in session at Camp Birdsall Edey and are under going their training for the regular Girl Scout camping season which gets under way on Sunday, June 27.

War conditions which have made impossible operation of the Erie and Sharon camps have brought about formation of a group of counselors which promises to afford an unusually interesting experience for local campers this season.

Members of the staff are as follows: Fawn Cabin — Anna Fortman, Oil City, unit leader; Joyce VanTassel, Warren, and Virginia Bailey, Oil City, assistants. Crick Cabin — Adeline Cipriano, Farrell, unit leader; Gloria Genge and Virginia Fees, Warren, assistants. Merry Men Cabin — Naomi Gaston, Conway Springs, Kans., unit leader for first session; Mary Alice Clark, Wichita, Kans., unit leader for second and third sessions; Nancy Bacon, Erie, and Georgia Torrey, Oil City, assistants.

Cook, Mrs. Swanson, Youngsville, for the first week; Mrs. Coral Stoffel, North Warren, remaining period; assistant, Violet Bimber, Warren; caretaker, Dudley King, North Warren; gardener, Irene Steiner, Warren; counselor apprentices, Ruth Ann David and Nancy Schwartz, Warren; Louisa May Urey and Mary Ada Nelson, Oil City.

Althea N. Correll, county Girl Scout director, is in charge with Mrs. F. L. Abendroth heading the following camp committee: Mrs. A. J. Slatry, Mrs. MacLean Houston and Mrs. Freeman Peterson.

More girls are registered than ever before in the five seasons Camp Birdsall Edey has been in operation. Transportation problems are being met in a variety of ways. For established camp girls will take a bus to a point two miles from camp and hike in, their luggage to be transported by buckboard operated by Harry and John Lewis. One unit, with plans for a three-day troop session when the driving band fell, hiked the six miles to camp and return.

Camp program is much improved and enlarged, with a large garden giving some an opportunity to earn while they learn and play. Several counselors will give archery instruction and interesting uses will be made of non-critical materials in arts and crafts. Canoeing promises to be popular with those campers who prove themselves proficient swimmers and able to handle a canoe safely.

Memorial Is Held By Local IOOF Lodge

The annual memorial service under the auspices of Warren Lodge No. 339, I. O. O. F. was held last evening with the cooperation of members of Lady Warren Rebekahs and Kossuth Encampment No. 98.

The program was opened with the singing of "Onward Christian Soldiers," followed by the invocation by Rev. J. H. Cruickshank, of the North Warren Presbyterian church, who was the principal speaker.

After a few welcoming remarks by the chairman, Ben Sander, the impressive ceremony of calling the roll of deceased members was performed with the aid of eight members of the Rebekah drill team. Seven members of Warren lodge passed away during the year and four affiliated with Kossuth Encampment.

A trio composed of Rowena Yeager, Cleo Adolphson and Martha Edwards sang "The Old Rugged Cross," after which Rev. Cruickshank delivered an inspiring message on the theme "Building a Life That Endures."

After the singing of "God Bless America," by the audience with Mrs. Edwards accompanying on the piano, Rev. Cruickshank pronounced the benediction.

Flowers which were taken to the service by members were distributed on the graves of deceased members this morning.

LOSER TAKE ALL

By Adelaide Hazeltine

Chapter 14

BERT took Ann to a new restaurant, quieter and more secluded than the last one they visited. Here, at a small table to themselves, he wanted to hear about the Masons.

"They're my charity case," she said, borrowing Sarah's words and sure that Bert would recognize the reference. "The one you turned down."

"I turned down?"
"Yes. The one Sarah called you about yesterday noon. The workman's wife with flu. When you refused to go I believe she was so far as to suggest she knew in advance you wouldn't take the case."

His face clouded. "Either you're making it up or I was unconscious, Sarah didn't call me about any charity case."

"She didn't?" Ann was puzzled. "Then she talked on the phone to herself?"

That or Bert for reasons of his own had decided to deny it. She didn't know which but she was inclined to believe Sarah faked the conversation, not wanting Bert exposed to anything in which Ann was interested.

"We managed without you," she said and let the smile in her voice relieve the sharpness of the rebuke.

"You'll have to start at the beginning."

He listened attentively while she outlined the plight of the little trailer family.

"It's pitiful, Bert. Four persons crowded into a space no larger than the corner of this room."

"Well, if the man's making money his family doesn't have to live that way."

"Oh, but they do! There's not a vacant house in Radville and there must be forty families in the camp."

"We've had lots of building since the defense plant opened."

"CERTAINLY. But these are the overflow and when I think of all the space to waste at Terrence House it makes me wonder if something shouldn't be done about it. Staff and all, we haven't more than 17 people in a house that would accommodate a small army."

"Sure," he chided. "Bring them all up to the hotel and let them mix with our finicky clients."

"They're helping win the war!" she retorted and was sorry when she saw him flush. He wasn't helping win it. Or at least he wasn't in uniform. But she understood they hadn't called him because he was one of the last two doctors in town.

So Bert knew Jerry followed her and had mistaken their quarrel for a lover's tryst.

She wanted to laugh but her sense of humor deserted her.

"He followed me. He had no business doing it."

BERT scoffed. "I'd say he followed you, all right, but it looked as if he had both business and invitation to do it."

"I suppose you wouldn't believe the truth? That he almost scared me silly, that I stopped to speak to him only because I thought he'd tell me about finding the will."

Bert stiffened. "Finding what will?"

"My grandmother's." She told Bert of her own part in the search and of her presence when Jerry came. "He's not man enough to admit it," she finished.

"Does he know you saw him?"

"Are you sure of this?" He drummed his fingers in an alarming rhythm. "Are you certain it was the will?"

"Yes, I could tell by the way he acted. You'll have to help me, Bert."

He seemed preoccupied when he said, "Yes, of course."

"Why couldn't we look in his room for it?"

"He'd hardly leave it there. He might destroy it."

"If he's shrewd enough to withhold it, he'll be too shrewd to leave it lying around."

"Still, there's a chance. I'll never be satisfied until I try every possibility."

He didn't answer.

"If you'd help me?"

He flashed her a smile. "I'll help you make love, Ann. Let's forget the business of the will and get back to us. Will you marry me?"

GAS RATIONING GOOD FOR HEALTH

Here's some expert and timely advice for Times-Mirror readers who may be affected by the OPA ruling of last week which stated that persons residing within 30 to 40 minutes walking distance of their work should not ride to their places of employment.

"From a standpoint of health," says Lou Fink, trainer of Gene Tunney for his most important battles, "gas rationing and the rubber shortage are a boon to our people. They are forcing them to do more walking."

He says walking is the first cousin of roadwork, without which no ringman ever reached his peak in physical fitness. It increases the appetite and helps indigestion.

"So hit the road" in the morning, is Fink's admonition. Walk to work, if you don't live too far from your job. Walk part of the way, at least. If you have time, three miles a day is ideal and you needn't do it all in one stretch.

Walk at least a mile and a half, about a half an hour after dinner. Some of you sedentary folks may think this is a little too long, but, as you round into better condition, it will be mighty short.

Fatigue is the surest sign of poor condition. If a short, snappy walk makes you tired, you can be certain that exercise is what you need.

Don't loaf along. Put snap and vigor into your walking. Swing the arms freely, breathe deeply.

IMPORTANCE OF COAL

The importance of coal—vital segment of the steel industry—to the nation's war effort was brought into sharp focus by work stoppages in the mines five times in the World War II period.

In the fall of 1941, when American industries were beginning to swing into high gear in manufacturing the tools of defense, 400,000 bituminous miners walked out in a wage controversy. The strike lasted one week, and in that time stockpiles of coal owned by steel companies ran low and curtailment of operations was necessary.

A few weeks later 53,000 miners employed in captive mines of the steel industry struck, seeking union recognition. About 200,000 miners employed in commercial pits struck in sympathy. Again they were out only a few days, but in that time coal stocks were virtually depleted and one steel firm alone was forced to bank 11 furnaces.

The strike in May lasted but two days in most mines and apparently caused no drop in steel production. The Department of Interior estimated an output of 2,000,000 tons of coal was lost.

The strike the first of the month was the fourth and lasted almost a week. Monday's strike was the fifth. Many believe that the action of John L. Lewis last evening in ordering the miners back to the pits with October 31st as a truce deadline means but another postponement of the settlement of the fundamental issue involved.

SIX TO ONE

Dispatches from London tell of powerful new "pulverizing" raids on the German Ruhr in which United States bombers took an active part.

The six to one ration which our bombing missions have hung up against Nazi planes over the Reich is gratifying evidence both of the fire-power of the planes and the skill and courage of the crews.

But in casting up the material score we must have in mind that this still is not fair exchange. We are losing Flying Fortresses and Liberators; we are destroying smaller machines. When one of our planes falls we can expect to lose eight men; the Germans often save the one man in theirs.

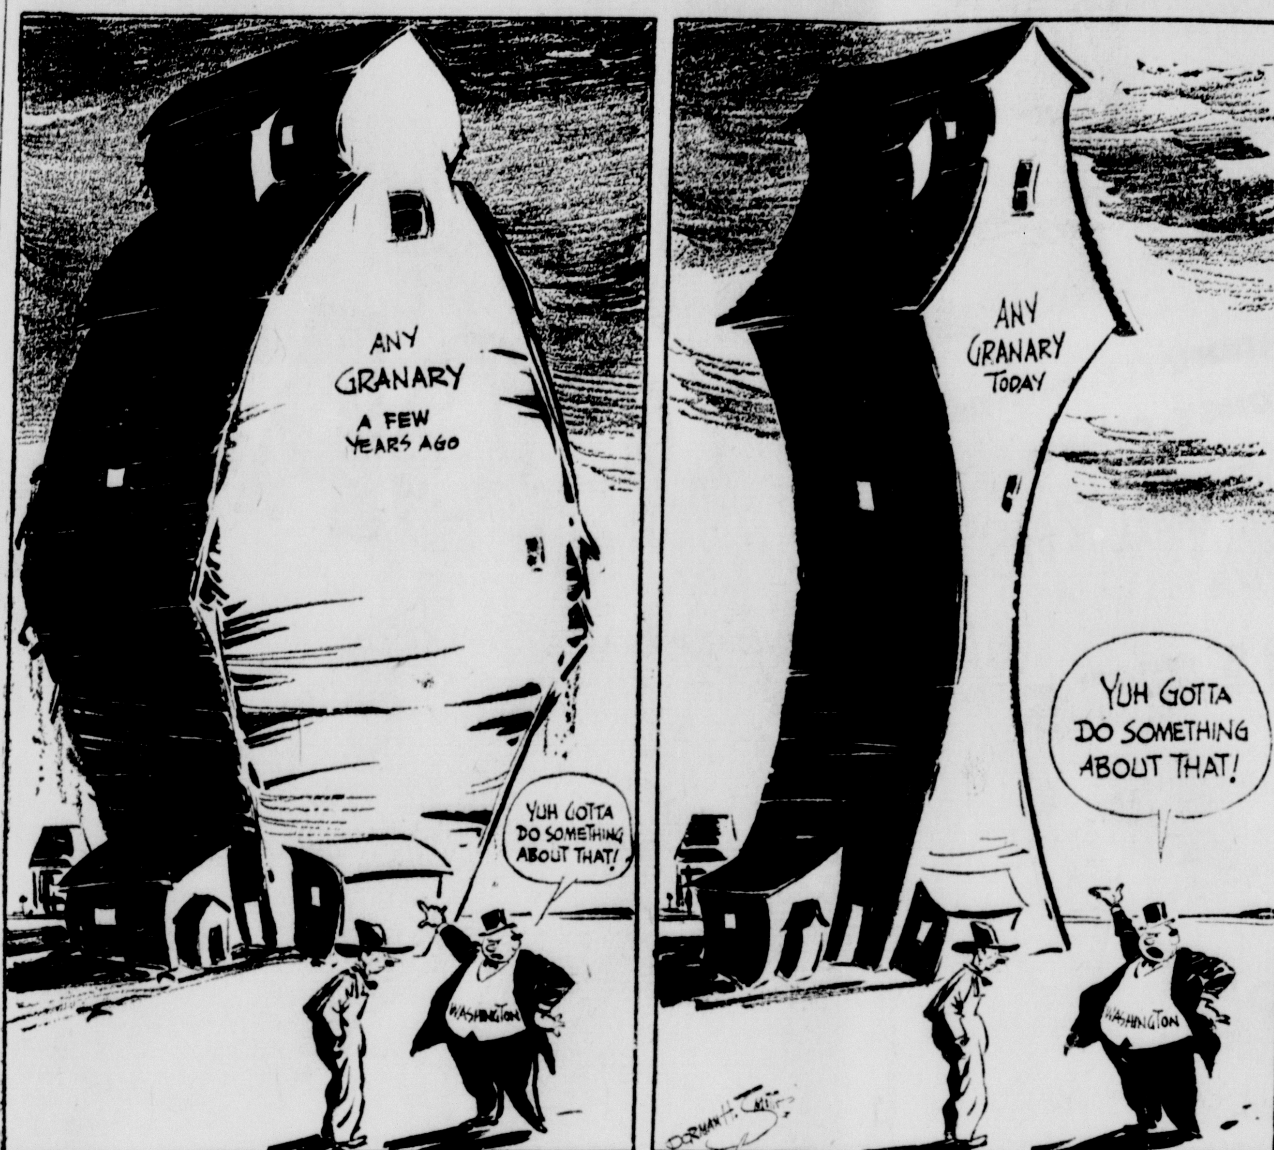

The exchange favors us only because we can afford it for the sake of the enormous damage the bombers do before they are lost.

The Ministerial Association is to be commended for sponsoring a series of out-door Sunday evening services to be held on the lawn of Beatty school through July and August. It is encouraging to observe that efforts are to be made to interest citizens again in Sunday evening worship, which has been sadly neglected since the advent of automobiles.

The Exchange Club has undertaken the task of enrolling 400 volunteers to serve as airplane spotters at the Warren airport. They may be men, women or high school students. How about filling out one of those coupons found in this issue of the Times-Mirror, now?

With the river stage down to the one-foot level looks like the sidewalk superintendents will soon take up their posts along the banks near the Hickory street bridge where the contractor is preparing to start work on repairing the piers.

The Farmer's Ever Normal Problem

Washington in Wartime

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—The Capital in Wartime:

The Army has hair in its hair. In spite of numerous protests from the Army that it doesn't use human hair—or spiderwebs—in its bomb-sights, the bewhiskered story keeps popping up and along come batches of raven or golden tresses—or at least offers of same.

The latest story (and the Army would like to snatch the guy that wrote it) is that milady's locks needed for those precious bomb-sights should be 21 inches long. That "21 inches" must have been stuck in to confuse the enemy. It sure confused the Army.

The prize offer, however, came from a patriotic midwestern woman who suggested turning over a room in her home to black widow spiders, in which sanctuary they might spin all the webs the Army could carry away. It's a nice idea if the Army had any use for black widow spiderwebs.

The Army's only explanation is that it has better bomb-sight cross-hairs than ever were spun by a spider or fathered by a follicle.

THE White House isn't the only place in Washington where Harry Hopkins carries weight. The other night, prowlers broke into an apartment house here. From one apartment, they stole eight $25 war bonds and other things. In another, they copped a perfectly good camera—and other things. They ransacked a third of all valuables and in a fourth, they picked up $22.50 in cash.

To the local police, it was just another housebreaking and investigation proceeded in the routine manner, which is slightly slow. Then came a call to the District commissioners from the White House—Harry Hopkins speaking. It was, it seems, the Hopkins' maid who had been robbed of that $22.50.

In less than 30 hours, three detectives, concentrating on the case, had "broken it," and two suspects were under arrest, with a large portion of the loot reportedly discovered, but not the $22.50. The detectives are a little worried about that.

SOME folks laughed when Rep. Walter H. Judd, Minneapolis, Minn., Republican, former Mayo Foundation fellowship surgeon and medical missionary to China, stopped outside President Roosevelt's office door the other day and tied a sterile gauze mask over his mouth and nose.

When some kiddie asked why "the disguise," the Congressman explained simply that he had a cold. Some logical thinkers ceased to snicker.

So far as I can find out, Congressman Judd is the only presidential visitor to the snifflers who ever showed any particular consideration for the President's susceptibility to colds.

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—There's a fresh beard-print hardener in a block of concrete in the forecourt of the Chinese theater here, and it's more than just another addition to that house's bizarre collection of stellar "autographs." It's the symbol of a cycle.

Monty Woolley, washing the soggy cement from his treasured whiskers after the ceremony, already had ridden the cycle—which he inaugurated—to fame. It is a great day for the old boys, and for stories in which they can frolic. The beard, a symbol of the oldsters' return to the spotlight, is here to stay a while. Once before, the older generation enjoyed a professional fiesta comparable to this one. The screen, long devoted to the love stories of handsome young men and curvaceous cuties, made the interesting discovery that beauty and youth were not the only commodities that could sell tickets.

The late Marie Dressler, supposedly a worn-out has-been, played a small part with Garbo in "Anna Christie" and next thing Hollywood knew she was queen of the screen, the No. 1 box-office attraction.

IT WAS the era of Will Rogers, George Arliss, and another has-been, Wallace Beery, whose comeback was so complete that, a dozen years later, he still rides high. Lionel Barrymore, making capital of the cycle, clinched an enduring place, along with Lewis Stone.

This time the war is boosting the chances of the older actors.

Just as it is giving the slightly over-age boys a look-in at the romantic roles formerly taken by leading men who are gone to the colors, it is opening the doors to all—anner of "characters"—with no age limit. Stories of life on the home front, which is practically stripped of its young men, put a natural accent on the older citizens.

Charles Coburn has been drawing compliments for several years for his work in more or less irascible father roles, but none like those he garnered as Mr. Dingle in "The More the Merrier." Columbia got excited enough to star him in his next film, "Without Notice," and—applied enough—endowed him with a beard.

THERE are three younger men who have made brilliant names by forsaking youth for whiskers, lime, and wrinkles—one of them, Walter Brennan, already having three Oscars for his work. Lee J. Cobb, smooth-cheeked infant just entering his thirties, never has acted his age on the screen. Edgar Buchanan, a young dentist, was a young man in "Penny Serenade," but most of his characterizations have been played behind shrubbery.

Frank Morgan, as the old telegraph operator of "The Human Comedy," drew a role to stimulate fresh interest in his always pleasant work. Just as this film gave us a new and subdued Mickey Rooney, it gave Morgan a chance to shed the mannerisms which had become his trade-mark and to project a vivid character.

From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

Sam Abernethy always said: "Curiosity may kill a cat—but I'm no cat." Which is Sam's way of saying that when he's curious about something he goes out and gets the facts.

Seems our government feels the same way. After hearing rumors about our soldiers drinking too much—government people went after the facts. They got the evidence on what our boys drink... and don't drink.

The government found out our Army's best behaved in history. More'n half of 'em drink beer—nothing stronger. And the government found that selling 3.2 beer in Army camps is one reason why our Army is so temperate.

From where I sit, there isn't much cause to worry about our men in the Army. Looks like they can take care o' themselves—and take care o' the Nazis and the Japs, too.

Sugar Grove Boy Had Part In Big Victory

One of the first of the Warren county boys to arrive home from a tour of duty in the Tunisian campaign Emil Kolick, of Sugar Grove has a most interesting story to tell of his adventures. He enlisted in the U. S. service on May 5, 1942 and after completing his basic training in the United States was sent to Ireland and then on to England.

"Those Irish are all right," said Kolick. "They are jolly and full of fun and tried to show us a good time. However some of them, from the South of Ireland, did not like us so well. But we got along fine. The English people are nice. They just couldn't do enough for us. Everywhere we went they had a kind word for us Yanks and are good soldiers, too, and when we called them Limmies. They put in a tough spot they stay there and fight like devils."

Kolick sailed for Africa in the great armada of ships and warships and took part in the landing at Oran where they had to battle fiercely to get ashore. However this action was soon over and the losses were small. Kolick then went forward with the American forces and took part in the battle of Kasserine Pass where the Americans were forced to retreat under heavy German attack. Later he was at El Gettur and here he underwent a severe bombing with his command. In leaping into a shell hole to escape the bombing he was jumped upon by a heavier soldier and had his shoulder damaged so that he had to be hospitalized. This ended his fighting and he was invalided home.

"Boy was I glad to see that statue of Liberty? And say Sugar Grove never looked so good to me as when I got there," said the young soldier.

On the ship on which he returned there were many prisoners and he stated that the Germans were morose and mean but steadfastly clung to the view that the Axis would win. The Italians on the ship were happy and sang and were glad they were out of the way as they had no will to fight the United States as they have so many relatives in this country.

Washington School Troop Gets Charter

An impressive charter presentation and investiture ceremony was held recently in the Washington School at Tiona when the Boy Scout Troop Charter was presented to the President of the P. T. A. for their Scout Troop 34.

On behalf of the Washington School, P. T. A. the Charter was presented to Mrs. V. R. Brennan the newly elected president. The declaration of religious principle and the outline of the Troop Committee's responsibility were given by Leo Giese as he presented the membership cards to the members of the Troop Committee. Scouts of the First Presbyterian Church Troop No. 4 arranged for the candle lighting investiture service for the Scouts. The members of the Troop Committee of the Tiona Troop are as follows: E. D. Champion, chairman; John D. Logan, W. H. McClellan, A. C. Bailey, Rev. Jesse Knapp, A. M. Hucksbone, L. R. Champion and Herman Bauer. V. R. Brennan, Scoutmaster and Roy V. Johnston, Assistant Scoutmaster.

The Scouts registered with the Troop as follows: Blair Logan, Junior Champion, Raymond Jordan, David Stover, Kenneth Yane, Joseph Bradley, Donald Champion, Alvin Bauer, Glenn Logan, Neil Meley, Robert McClellan, Jack Strandburg, Jack Lane and Glenn Jordan.

As a part of the ceremony the certificates for having completed the training course in the fundamentals of the Boy Scout Movement were presented to the members of the Troop Committee, Scoutmaster and Assistant by Chester R. Seymour, local Scout Executive.

"Follow the example of the armed forces—get a chest X-ray" is the slogan for the 1943 Early Diagnosis Campaign of the Warren County Tuberculosis Society, being waged this month.

Q. How does my employer know how much of my wage is exempt from withholding?

A. Because he gives you a slip of paper called WITHHOLDING EXEMPTION CERTIFICATE. On it you indicate whether you are single or married, how many dependents you have, and so forth. Then you sign the Certificate and return it to your employer. From that information he can tell exactly how much of your pay is exempt from withholding, and how much bears the 20 percent tax.

Q. What if I do not hand in one of these Certificates to my employer?

A. Then he is required by law to withhold the 20 percent tax from all of your wage without any exemption. So it will save you money to be sure to turn one in.

Q. Do I turn my Withholding Exemption Certificate in to my foreman, to the payroll department, or where?

A. The Withholding Exemption Certificate must be given to your employer, or some one designated by him to accept it.

Q. Suppose both my wife and I are employed. How does the exemption work?

A. The personal exemption may be divided and each take one-half, or one may claim it all. Each has the same Victory tax withholding exemption.

Q. Suppose I am married, have two children, and earn $54.00 a week—how much pay will I receive after the withholding tax has been deducted?

A. You will receive $50.20 if your employer elects to use the wage bracket withholding table provided by law, or $50.40 if your employer computes the tax at 20 percent of your wage less exemptions.

Q. If my husband has filled out an EMPLOYEE'S WITHHOLDING EXEMPTION CERTIFICATE and has claimed half of the personal exemption and exemption for one dependent, and after a couple of months is drafted; can the wife claim the full personal married exemption and the dependent child's exemption?

A. The withholding Exemption filed by the husband can be changed. Where there is a change of status, a new Certificate should be furnished the employer, which may take effect, at the employer's election, with respect to any payment of wages made on or after the date the Certificate is furnished; but in no event later than the first payment of wages on or after the following first day of July or January which occurs at least 30 days after the following first day of July or January which occurs at least 30 days after the Certificate is furnished to the employer.

A. The withholding Exemption Certificate must be given to your employer, or some one designated by him to accept it.

Q. Suppose both my wife and I

Observation Post Manning Is Important Bit of War Work

Many watchers are needed for the Warren airplane spotting post which is to be manned under the supervision of the Exchange Club. The Club is seeking four hundred volunteers who will give up four hours a month to one shift of watching the skies for airplanes.

The airplane defense system has become an important arm of America's air service, with many lives being saved through the alertness of the men and women who are scanning the skies. If Warren is to have a complete defense system it must do its part in this branch of the service.

The Exchange Club is providing gasoline coupons to those who will require it to get to the Warren airport. A well equipped office is available, and watchers are asked to name companions to help them pass the night hours.

Display windows and registration booths will be set up downtown at a later date, but volunteers are needed right now to get the system working. Men, women, or school students are welcome to serve. They may call

Clifford Johnson, chairman of the committee in charge, at 35.

An up-to-date war movie may be brought to Warren soon as a part of an educational program for the volunteers. Air corps officers and members of the air corps auxiliary will be present at that time. Those participating in this vital part of the war effort not only will be doing some real good, but they will be well entertained through the efforts of the Exchange Club.

With Red Sox Beginning To Sock Other American League Rivals Have Tough Summer

BY JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Boston Red Sox are beginning to sock once more and any time now they are likely to muscle in on the honeymoon the New York Yankees and Washington Senators have been enjoying at the top of the American League.

In the last three games Boston has blasted out seven homers against the best pitching the Philadelphia Athletics could muster and last night moved into a tie for third place with the Cleveland Indians, five games out of first place.

Cecil (Tex) Hightson, the lean pitching star of the Sox, has proved himself unquestionably the outstanding hurler in the league last night as he beat the Athletics 7-1.

Washington narrowed the gap between first and second place to two games by nailing out the Yankees 3-2 with Mickey Vernon hitting a home run and a triple to star for the Senators. His homer came in the fourth frame and after New York had scored twice.

The Chicago White Sox whipped the St. Louis Browns 5-3 in a night game to advance into a virtual tie for sixth place with the Athletics.

Petrewski Expected To Be In Lineup For the National Forge In Meadville Pioneer Clash

Stiggy Petrewski, former National Forge ace infielder, and now in the army will probably still be here Sunday for the Forge's clash with the mighty Meadville Pioneers, it was announced last night.

"Stiggy, made up one of the boys in that Irvine combine which won the county championship and opened interest in the Forge team all over the state.

After entering the lineup last Friday night as a surprise to local fans when they tackled the Elks, he came out with a perfect

In the National League the Brooklyn Dodgers captured their third straight from the New York Giants 7-4 and cut the lead of the St. Louis Cardinals to two.

A five-run sixth inning turned the trick for the Dodgers, routing Rube Fischer, the Giants' rookie who beat Brooklyn in his debut last week.

Big Paul Derringer shutout the Pittsburgh Pirates 1-0 for the Cubs in a morning game at Chicago although he gave seven hits while his teammates collected only four off John Podgajny.

The Braves were outthit and Coaker Triplett also hit a roundtripper for Philadelphia.

Johnny Salvo, whom Boston not long ago sold to the Phillies and they declined to keep, received credit for his second success of the season—both against the Phillies.

Some superstitious people in the southwestern United States, to prevent a dog from straying, cut off its tail and bury it under the doorstep. They believe the dog will never stray far from its tail.

Most suicides occur at night, according to records.

Fishin' Is Good in Penna.

Conditions Reported Good for Bass Season

Harrisburg, June 23—(A)—Fish Commissioner C. A. French expects the current bass on pleasure driving to cut sharply into the number of fishermen on hand July 1 for the opening of the bass season—even though there will be as many fish as ever and streams are reported in good condition.

The commissioner said anglers who take to trains or buses to reach the fishing spots probably will find good sport in the north branch of the Susquehanna, Conodoguinet creek in Cumberland county and Allegheny river and French Creek in western Pennsylvania.

Noting the muskellunge season also opens July 1, French said a dozen northwestern Pennsylvania lakes—like Conneaut Lake and Lake LeBoeuf—offer plenty of inducement.

Grace Loses Fast Game To Episcopalians

Behind the stellar pitching of "Mike" Blech, the Episcopal ten in the YMCA-Church softball league, knocked the highly touted Grace M. E. team from their first position tie with St. "Joe", into third place. By so doing the Trinity boys elevated themselves to second place. The Memorial boys got right down to work in the first inning and banged in 2 runs. This sort of took the heart out of the Grace boys and it seemed as though they couldn't get going thereafter.

In the third inning Grace rallied and brought a run across the plate. Memorial not to be daunted took the initiative in the next inning and collected three more runs. Neither team scored again until the ninth when the Memorial team pushed one across.

Only four men faced Pitcher "Mike" in the last half of this inning but it was enough to score one run. This ended the game with Episcopal 6 and Grace 2.

Rader pitching for Grace was relieved in the 8th inning by Jim Urbanski who held the Memorialites to one run. Iron man Blech went the whole distance for the Trinity outfit and was never in serious trouble at any time.

Tonight brings the Grace M. E. team on to the field again and this time against St. Joseph's. Thursday, First Baptist and the Presbyterians will tangle which should be interesting as they both occupy the cellar positions.

LANDER

Lander, June 17—The 4-H Club was recently organized with Mrs. Thelma Pendergast. Extension leader and Mrs. Jennie Lyon, local leader present. These officers were elected, President, Bernice Lindell; vice president, Imogene Myers; secretary, Carol Ludwick; news reporter, Mary Eleanor Bosko; song leader, Susie Day, and Imogene Myers; game leaders, Mary Lou Hill and Doris Day. They will meet on Tuesday mornings twice a month. The project will be sewing.

The regular meeting of Boy Scout troop 16 met at their building with Scoutmaster Emerson Spicer and Assistant Myron Ludwick present. The business session was conducted by Rodrick Bergstrom. Plans were made for merit badge tests by the board of review next week. Shades and curtains were placed by the group after the meeting.

The annual meeting of the lot owners of Foster Cemetery Association was held and two trustees for three year term were elected. Ernest Beck and Mrs. Helen Lindell were re-elected. R. E. Lindell retired.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Putnam were appointed to audit the books. Later at a meeting of the trustees these officers were elected for the year: President, Ernest Beck; secretary and treasurer, Helen Lindell; work committee, Robert C. Walter. $266 was reported as being received for perpetual care lots. Action was taken to buy a $500 government bond from the perpetual care fund.

Panthers To Have Bright Red Uniforms

Pittsburgh, June 23—(A)—The University of Pittsburgh Panthers are discarding the blue and gold school colors on their uniforms next fall for a more outstanding red and white combination.

"And, while we may lose some games, I'm sure we are going to give a more spectacular type of play than many expect," Clark Daniel Shaughnessy, the new coach, promised after the uniforms were selected yesterday by a committee of officials and alumni.

The new uniforms will have blazing red jerseys and stockings, white helmets and moleskins and white numbers, giving the players the appearance of being huskier than before.

"I prefer a lively, aggressive color arrangement," Shaughnessy said. "I believe it helps the boys considerably to avoid drab array."

In choosing the uniforms the selection committee unknowingly duplicated Shaughnessy's move last season at Maryland U., where he substituted the school's black and gold for red and white.

Piano-Thumping Dick Siebert Playing Great Tune With Bat

BY TED MEIER
Philadelphia, June 23—(A)—Piano-thumping Dick Siebert, first baseman for the Athletics, is playing a whale of a tune with his bat these days—a baseball tune that may bring him the American League runs batted in championship for the first time in his career.

The 29-year-old southpaw, who likes nothing better than to tickle the ivories with "Minnesota Rouser", currently tops the junior loop RBI column with 36, although his batting average is only around .250. He is confident he can drive 100 runners across this season, a feat that would far surpass his best previous mark of 79 in 1941. "Bob Johnson's going to Washington makes quite a difference," explained Siebert—in English, although he rivals Moe Berg as a linguist. "Bob always batted in the cleanup slot just above me and he usually cleaned the sacks with his long drives."

"Under those circumstances," Dick continued, "I had little chance to knock in many runs. Now when I come to bat the chances are there may be some runners, so I'm bearing down harder."

Dick didn't drive in any runs against Tex Hughson of the Boston Red Sox last night, but his eighth inning two-bagger, follow-

Mrs. Louise Bailey Presents Clarendon Pupils For Recital

A large audience gathered in the Clarendon Methodist church Monday evening to hear piano pupils of Mrs. Louise Bailey in their first summer recital.

Each number was played with unflinching memory and careful precision as to rhythm, technique and poise, all of which gave evidence of excellent training and preparation.

Ensemble numbers deserved especial mention, since they were played with a perfect unity of touch and expression so necessary in this type of music.

Interesting variety was introduced by two cello solos, Stephen Foster selections, played by Kay Miller, accompanied by her teacher, Miss Joyce Barnes. Miss Miller, although still very young, gives promise of becoming a finished performer on this difficult instrument.

Heard in this pleasant musical offering were David Bathurst, Audrey Barr, Monte Mason, Ann Nobles, Walter Pittman, Joanne Scalis, Robert Atkins, Marcella Brian, Geraldine Dykins, Patty Ann Larson, Betty Lou Garber, Mary Elizabeth Barhight, Jo Ann Hickey, Mary Lou Atkins, Rebecca Miller, Geraldine Kiester, Ethel Miller and Avonelle Larson.

Residents of Clarendon felt rightly proud of this display of musical talent and are looking forward to other recitals which may be given from time to time.
